Join for a SexEdForAll Twitter chat!

Wednesday, May 27 from 2-3PM EST
Let us know you'll participate at: https://bit.ly/SexEdForAllChat

Co-hosted by: State Adolescent Health Resource Center
Greetings!

We are excited to host our upcoming Twitter Chat on Wednesday, May 27 and we hope you can join us! The #SexEdForAllChat will follow a question and answer format. We will ask a series of questions using the hashtag #SexEdForAllChat. Please RSVP at https://bit.ly/SexEdForAllChat so we know you’ll be there.

Please consider posting links, resources and tagging other providers and organizations. To engage, please post your answer and include #SexEdForAllChat in your response. We will be posting the questions using a Q1 format. Please use a standard A1 format for your answers and remember to use the #SexEdForAllChat hashtag.

EXAMPLE:

Q1: Who do we have participating today? #SexEdForAllChat

A1: My name is Mary and I am with AMCHP. #SexEdForAllChat

*Note: There is a six-minute period between each question. Please use this time to submit responses.

QUESTIONS (all times listed below are EST):

- Q1 (2:00-2:05pm): Who do we have participating today and why are you joining this #SexEdForAllChat?
- Q2 (2:06-2:12pm): What stereotypes still exist about young people and their sexuality or sexual behavior? #SexEdForAllChat
- Q3 (2:13-2:19pm): How is our response to COVID-19 pandemic changing young people’s access to sex ed? How can we continue to support adolescents, adolescent health programs, and #SexEdForAll during COVID-19? #SexEdForAllChat
- Q4 (2:20-2:26pm): What are some of the implications for young people’s perceptions of healthy relationships based on social interaction changes and restrictions due to COVID-19? #SexEdForAllChat
- Q5 (2:27-2:33pm): How can we better support parents and caregivers being sex educators in the home? #SexEdForAllChat
- Q6 (2:34-2:40pm): Where do other systems interact with sex education & how can they work together to create #SexEdForAll? #SexEdForAllChat
- Q7 (2:41-2:47pm): How can we better ensure young people are getting quality and equitable access to sex ed regardless of where they live, how they identify, and whether they’re in a typical school setting? #SexEdForAllChat
• Q8 (2:48-2:54pm): What are the types of messages young people with disabilities receive about sexuality? How does #SexEdForAll make the conversation more inclusive for youth with special health care needs? #SexEdForAllChat
• 2:55-3:00pm: Closing, final thoughts: We hope that all of you have enjoyed this #SexEdForAllChat! Thank you for sharing your thoughts and resources and we look forward to continuing the #SexEdForAll conversation. Please feel free to share any last thoughts and stay well!
