

What to bring to the skill-building workshop

Dear colleague,

We look forward to your participation our upcoming training. We will be conducting simple equations to estimate the number of pregnant women within a geographic area and ask that you bring the following items with you:

- 1) A basic calculator, those available on most cell phones will suffice.
- 2) Something to write with, preferably a pencil.

Thank you!