The following practices were awarded the Best designation in Spring of 2019. Stay tuned for Promising, Emerging, and Cutting-Edge Practices to come.

- One Key Question, National
  One Key Question® is a transformative tool for health and social service providers that starts the conversation about if, when, and under what circumstances women want to get pregnant and have a child.

- One Tiny Reason to Quit, Virginia
  One Tiny Reason to Quit (OTRTQ) is a social marketing campaign designed to prompt pregnant African American smokers to call 1-800-QUITNOW, a free, evidence-based smoking cessation counseling line.

- PASOS Health Connections, South Carolina
  PASOs is a bridge between Latino families and the resources they need, bringing families’ voices forward to speak to the inequities that challenge them, and delivering information to families in a culturally appropriate way.

- Pathways Community HUB, Ohio
  The purpose of the Pathways Community HUB (HUB) is to provide an evidence-based, organized, pay-for-outcomes focused, network of community-based organizations that hire and train community health workers (CHWs) to reach out to those at greatest risk, identify their risk factors and assure that they connect to medical, social, and behavioral health services to reduce their risk.

---

Do you see a practice that you would like to replicate in your area? Get in touch with the project contact to learn about their challenges, successes, and how you can adapt the practice to fit your needs. If you decide to replicate all or part of the practice, visit our website to find out about opportunities to fund this work.

Are you also addressing MCH issues? Share your practice with Innovation Station to receive recognition, help others learn from your great work, and make a difference in MCH. Learn more about AMCHP’s practice categories and submission process here.

Have questions or want to learn more? Contact Lynda Krisowaty lkrisowaty@amchp.org or Alyssa Bosold abosold@amchp.org.