The Wisconsin Medical Home Webcast Series is an online learning opportunity developed in partnership between the WI Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs (Title V) Program and the Waisman Center University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities.

Patient- and Family-Centered Care... From Principles to Practice (45 min)
Bill Schwab, MD
Describes how primary care providers can move from principles to practice in providing patient- and family-centered care.

Early Hearing Detection and Intervention (EHDI): A Sound Beginning for Wisconsin's Babies (15 min)
Sharon Fleischfresser, MD, MPH
Describes action steps for primary care providers and others can take to reduce loss to follow-up in early hearing detection and intervention.

Developmental Surveillance and Screening in the Medical Home (4 min)
Mala Mathur, MD, MPH
Provides an overview of developmental surveillance and screening in primary care.

Implementing Developmental Screening in Primary Care Practice (Using the ASQ) (36 min)
Arianna Keil, MD
Describes how to implement developmental screening using valid and reliable standardized screening tools in primary care.

Screening for Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD) Using the M-CHAT (20 min)
Mala Mathur, MD, MPH
Describes doing surveillance and screening for autism spectrum disorders using the M-CHAT screening tool.

Sharing Screening Results with Families (10 min)
Elizabeth Wahl, MSW, APSW
Describes how to share screening results with families in a family-centered and strength-based way.

Typical Child Development (37 min)
Ann Rammeringer, M.S.
Describes typical childhood development from an Early Childhood perspective.

Developmental Assessment in Primary Care Practice (32 min)
Larry Kaplan, MD, ScM, FAAP
Describes an approach to developmental assessment that can inform everyday primary care practice.

Common Developmental Disabilities (43 min)
Larry Kaplan, MD, ScM, FAAP
Describes and differentiates between the common developmental disabilities.

Wisconsin Birth to 3 Early Intervention Program (25 min)
Linda Tuchman-Ginsberg, Ph.D.
Provides information about the Wisconsin Birth to 3 Program for health care professionals and parents.

Key Community Resources When There is a Developmental Concern (14 min)
Julia Stavran
Highlights some key resources that support children and families when a developmental concern is identified.

Identifying Resources for Children/Youth with Special Health Care Needs and Their Families (27 min)
Kristin Aasen-Gowan, MSSW
Overviews resources available to children and youth with special health care needs and their families.

Transition to Adult Health Care for Youth with Special Health Care Needs (12 min)
Ben Schlicht, Self-Advocate and Debra Gillman, Parent
Describes how youth and their health care providers can approach the transition from pediatric to adult health care in a thoughtful way.

Things to Think About When Completing Advance Directives (11 min)
Craig Becker, MSSW
Describes advance directives and some things that individuals, their families, and their health care providers can think about when completing them.

www.waisman.wisc.edu/connections/webcast.php