New Directors Leaders Cohort (NDLC)

What you will want to know later, now.

Who should apply?
- Title V administrators (Title V, MCH, or CYSHCN Directors or senior reports) who have been in this capacity for three years or less.

What can you expect?
- Individualized leadership planning with an experienced mentor
- Discuss challenges and opportunities with supportive peers
- Exposure to tools, models, and evidence-based resources
- Coordination and technical assistance from AMCHP staff

Potential topics covered include:
- Recruiting, retaining, and motivating a diverse and skilled staff
- Navigating and leveraging community partnerships
- Embedding health equity and social justice frameworks
- Emergency planning and response

Meet your Cohort Leaders!

Michelle Crawford is AMCHP’s Senior Specialist for Family Leadership Initiatives. She has made significant contributions to the advancement of MCH programs through planning and program implementation, research, advocacy, education, and evaluation projects related to family engagement and leadership development.

Ben Kaufman, MSW is AMCHP’s Associate Director for Workforce Development and Capacity Building. He previously led a HRSA funded technical assistance center focused on interdisciplinary training for aspiring MCH leaders and brings a decade of experience in working with communities and systems to align research, practice, and policy.