Next Generation Leaders Cohort (NextGen)
Preparing today for tomorrow’s challenges and opportunities.

Who should apply?
• Any current Title V staff who are either interested in or being considered for future leadership roles within their state/territory agency, and who have not previously participated in an AMCHP leadership development program.

What can you expect?
• Individualized leadership planning and mentorship
• Exposure to the “bigger picture” of Title V
• Collaborative, interdisciplinary team building activities
• Regular communication with a supportive peer group
• Travel support to attend the 2021 AMCHP Annual Conference

Potential topics covered include:
• Learning and applying systems thinking to MCH challenges
• Building, managing, and supervising diverse teams
• Embedding health equity frameworks
• Emergency preparedness and response

Meet your Cohort Leader!

Ben Kaufman, MSW is AMCHP’s Associate Director for Workforce Development and Capacity Building. He previously led a HRSA funded technical assistance center focused on interdisciplinary training for aspiring MCH leaders and brings a decade of experience in working with communities and systems to align research, practice, and policy.